Day 1: Kathmandu to Pokhara Flight. Half day Pokhara Sightseeing.

Early morning flight from Kathmandu with Buddha Air's fixed-wing flight. Pokhara is a city endowed with the tranquility of the lovely Phewa Lake and the natural environment of fishtail mountain. The flight takes about 30-40 minutes and provides a bird's eye view of some of the most spectacular mountain ranges in the world, including Annapurna, Dhaulagiri, and Manaslu, along with the beautiful terraced farmlands and rivers.

Spend the evening at the retreat taking in the splendor and beauty of your surroundings.

Day 2: Pokhara to ABC and Fly back to Ghandruk. Overnight Ghandruk

Early morning Helicopter ride from Pokhara to Annapurna Base camp: The flight takes about 30-40 minutes and provides a bird's eye view of some of the most spectacular mountain ranges in the world, including Annapurna South, Annapurna I, Annapurna II, Annapurna III, Annapurna IV, Machhapuchhre and many more. Spend 30 minutes in the base camp and fly back from the Base camp to Ghandruk: The flight takes about 30-40 minutes

Ghandruk is a beautiful village with a good view of Annapurna south and a great place to experience the traditional Gurung culture, the village has a good number of homestays, guesthouses, and also a community lodge. Ghandruk is also known as the starting point of Annapurna circuit trek and Ghorepani Trek.

Day 03: Day 3: Hiking around Ghandruk and overnight at Ghandruk

Start the hike from Ghandruk early in the morning, ideally around 6-7 am to avoid the afternoon clouds that tend to appear as the day progresses. The trail passes through small Gurung villages, offering glimpses of local culture and traditions, and also passes through a rhododendron forest. The trail also offers great views of the surrounding mountains, including Annapurna South, Hiunchuli, Machhapuchhre, and Gangapurna. Visit the Gurung museum and we will give you a guided tour to learn about the traditional culture and lifestyle of the Gurung people.

Day 4: Private vehicle to Pokhara and pokhara sightseeing.

Pokhara is a city endowed with the tranquility of the lovely Phewa Lake and the natural environment of fishtail mountain. The day will start with a trip to Sarangkot or the world peace center after breakfast, an amazing vantage point from where you can see Machhapuchhre, Dhaulagiri, and Annapurna. After the viewpoint, we will proceed to the ancient market, Gupteshwor Cave, a holy cave with a Shiva Temple well-known for the various naturally occurring shapes created from limestone deposits, and Devi's Fall, a waterfall that creates an underground passageway.

Day 5: Yoga and Retreat in pokhara (B & L Included)

A day of Yoga and Retreat in Pokhara typically starts with a morning yoga session held at the hotel, where you will have a breathtaking view of Pokhara. The session is conducted by a qualified yoga teacher who will guide you through different yoga postures, breathing exercises, and meditation techniques. After the yoga session, you can have breakfast at the hotel and then embark on a village walk. Pokhara is surrounded by picturesque villages, and the walk will allow you to explore the local culture, traditions, and way of life.

In the evening, you will have another yoga session that includes sound therapy, a powerful form of meditation that uses sound vibrations to induce a deep state of relaxation and inner peace. The session is usually held at the hotel, where you can enjoy the tranquil atmosphere and soothing sounds. After the session, you can relax and unwind in the hotel, take a dip in the pool, or enjoy some of the other facilities on offer. The retreat is designed to help you disconnect from the stresses of everyday life and reconnect with yourself, allowing you to rejuvenate and restore your mind, body, and soul.

Overall, a day of Yoga and Retreat in Pokhara is a perfect way to experience the natural beauty and cultural richness of Nepal while also improving your health and well-being through the practice of yoga and meditation.

Day 6: Flight to Kathmandu and sightseeing in Kathmandu

Today you will spend the day exploring the sights and attractions of Kathmandu. Some popular sights to visit include the Pashupatinath Temple, the Boudhanath Stupa, and the Durbar Square. You can also visit the Swayambhunath Temple, also known as the Monkey Temple, which offers beautiful views of the city from its hilltop location.

Or alternatively

Spend the day exploring the vibrant and bustling city of Kathmandu, or join Madam Sarala from Madame Tours for a shopping excursion. Before dinner, indulge in a traditional Nepali healing massage. On the final day, enjoy a farewell dinner with cultural dance at a typical Nepali restaurant, courtesy of Madam Tours.

Day 10: Departure

It is so hard to say goodbye but life has to go on, so we rather say: See you next time!! Namaste. Our Experienced driver will come and pick you at the hotel and drop you to the Departure gate of TIA.

NAMASTE!!
