Day 04: Jungle safari, Bird watching, Elephant Bath and Village Tour (B, L & D Included)

To the sound of the peacocks seated in the nearby trees, our tour guide and the naturalist will pick you up from your hotel today at around 7:00 AM for a canoe trip and bird watching from the river.

Take a rainforest stroll at 8:30 AM with your knowledgeable local safari guide and naturalist. Always pay attention to your surroundings and follow your guide's instructions. Keep in mind that you are entering an animal's territory, so you should give them some room and respect their habitat. On the route, we'll stop at the Elephant Bathing, where you may see or participate in an elephant bath.

Keep in mind that river water can not be healthy for your stomach.

11:30 AM: After a few hours of intense but fascinating boat rides, forest hikes, and elephant baths, we'll eat a traditional Nepali lunch in one of the city's busiest Thakali Restaurants.

1:00 PM: The safari in a jeep resumes after lunch at the popular tourist destination Sauraha. The one-horned rhinoceros, many species of deer, monkeys, wild boar, bison, sloth bear, leopard, and, by any chance, the Royal Bengal tiger are among the animals you could observe.

4:00 PM: Return to your hotel for a snack.

6:00 PM: Savor a traditional Nepali meal while listening to drums and watching farmers from neighbouring villages perform a Tharu cultural dance.

There will be a typical Tharu/Nepalese supper provided

Day 05: Drive from Chitwan to Pokhara (840m)(B & L Included)

Today you will drive from Chitwan to Pokhara, the second largest city of Nepal. The drive from Chitwan to Pokhara takes you through the beautiful countryside of Nepal, passing through small villages and forests along the way. Upon arrival in Pokhara, you can spend the evening exploring the city or relaxing at your hotel.

Lunch will be served in a highway restaurant.

Day 06: Sightseeing in Pokhara (B & L Included)

Pokhara is a city endowed with the tranquillity of the lovely Phewa Lake and the natural environment of Fishtail Mountain. The day will start with a trip to Sarangkot after breakfast, an amazing vantage point from where you can see Machhapuchhre, Dhaulagiri, and Annapurna. The 4x4 will proceed to the ancient market, Gupteshwor Cave, a holy cave with a Shiva Temple and well-known for the various naturally occurring shapes created from limestone deposits, and Davis Falls (also known as Devi's Falls/David's Falls), a waterfall that creates an underground passageway. You may go boating at Phewa Lake in the afternoon.

Lunch will be served in a local restaurant.

Day 07: Drive from Pokhara to Nayapul and hike to Ulleri (B, L & D Included)

After an early breakfast, at approximately 7:00 AM, a picturesque journey from Pokhara to Nayapul begins. Then, we'll start hiking to Ulleri (1952m), the largest Magar village where you'll spend the night.

Dinner will be offered at the hotel's restaurant, and lunch will be provided on the hiking trail.

Day 08: Ulleri to Ghorepani hiking (B, L & D Included)

You will trek through rhododendrons and magnolia trees today to get to Ghorepani (2850m).

In Ghorepani, you may discover German bakeries, taverns, cafés, and other places. You may either explore the area on foot or just unwind and make plans for the following day.

"Ghorepani is the meeting point for those who wish to view the sunrise from Poon Hill, which is located directly above the village."

Dinner will be offered at the hotel's restaurant, and lunch will be provided on the hiking trail.

Day 09: Trek to Poon Hill (3210m) and then to Tadapani (B, L & D Included)

Distance: Approximately 10 kilometers

Hiking time: Approximately 6-7 hours

Altitude: 2850 meters (Ghorepani) to 3210 meters (Poon Hill) and then to 2595 meters (Tadapani)

Accommodation: There are several teahouses and lodges in Tadapani where you can spend the night. The lodges offer basic accommodation and meals, and the rates are generally reasonable.

Along the way: From Ghorepani, you will make a short hike to Poon Hill, a popular viewpoint located in the Annapurna region. From Poon Hill, you will enjoy stunning views of the surrounding mountains, including Annapurna South, Annapurna I, and Dhaulagiri. After taking in the views from Poon Hill, you will continue your descent to Tadapani, a small village located in the Annapurna region.

Dinner will be offered at the hotel's restaurant, and lunch will be provided on the hiking trail.

Day 10: TadaPani- Ghanduk Hiking and Ghandruk Overnight (B, L & D Included)

Distance: Approximately 10 kilometers

Hiking time: Approximately 4-5 hours

Altitude: 2595 meters (Tadapani) to 1940 meters (Ghandruk)

Accommodation: There are several teahouses and lodges in Ghandruk where you can spend the night. The lodges offer basic accommodation and meals, and the rates are generally reasonable.

Along the way: From Tadapani, you will begin your descent through the Annapurna region, passing through small villages and forests along the way. The trail offers beautiful views of the surrounding mountains, including Annapurna South and Hiunchuli. You will eventually reach Ghandruk, a small village located at an altitude of 1940 meters. Ghandruk is a popular stop for trekkers in the Annapurna region, and it is known for its beautiful views and traditional Gurung culture.

Dinner will be available in the hotel.

Day 11: Ghandruk to Kimche hiking and Drive to Pokhara (B & L Included)

Trek down from the charming Gurung village of Ghandruk (1982 meters) to Kimche. Spend some time along the way exploring the day-to-day life of people.

Continue hiking to Kimche, where a 4x4 is waiting for you.

Enjoy the ride to the yoga and meditation retreat, where you will spend the night, while you heal.

Day 12: Pokhara Relaxation (Spa, Restaurant and Sightseeing) (B Included)

You have the day off today, so it's just you and lovely Nature. We are still close by, though, and would be delighted to show you around.

You have today to relax and take in your surroundings. Pokhara is so tranquil, that we wonder why we shouldn't stay another day. We advise you to rent a scooter and explore the city on it or just have a nice pokhara-style sound therapy or spa.

Day 13: Pokhara to Bandipur, and Bandipur Overnight (B & L Included)

From the Prithvi Highway, we ascend to the lovely, car-free hilltown of Bandipur. We can see a miniature Tuscany amid the steep setting. Because the town is so well-preserved, walking inside Bandipur will make you feel as though time has stopped.

We will visit the silkworm farm and take a stroll through the village to learn about the unique process of making silk. The farm includes mulberry plant orchards that are planted for worm feeding; the worms are raised inside.
